

Transit, the University, and College Park

A forum sponsored by Prince George's
Advocates for Community-based Transit

Students, faculty, staff, and residents invited

Thursday, October 6, 5:30 pm to 7:00 pm
Hornbake Library, Rm 0109
Light refreshments will be provided.

Featured speaker

John D. Porcari

Vice President for Administrative Affairs,
University of Maryland

Question-and-answer session

Short-term solutions and long-term solutions

Prospects for the Purple Line

Your input on the best solutions

*Founded in 2003, Prince George's Advocates for Community-based Transit is a growing advocacy group.
We seek accessible transit and livable communities for Prince George's County. Membership is free.*

Visit us at www.princegeorgesact.org

*Prince George's ACT, PO Box 22
Hyattsville, MD 20781*

