

For immediate release

Rail on Wilson Bridge forum to be sponsored by Prince George's ACT

Hyattsville, MD—January 12, 2007—Prince George's Advocates for Community-based Transit (Prince George's ACT) will host a forum about rail on the Woodrow Wilson Bridge on Thursday, February 22, 7:00pm to 8:45pm. The forum will be at the Oxon Hill Public Library, 6200 Oxon Hill Road, Oxon Hill, MD 20745, 301-839-2400. The library is served by Metrobus Route D12.

The forum is entitled "Rail on the Wilson Bridge: How to Move Forward?" Invited speakers include U.S. Representative Al Wynn, U.S. Representative Steny Hoyer, Prince George's County Executive Jack Johnson, community activist Donna Edwards, South County Economic Development Association president Ollie Anderson, and Coalition to Build the Purple Line chair Webb Smedley. There will be time for audience questions and comments.

Prince George's ACT invites its members and the general public to attend this forum to learn about and discuss this important potential link in our regional transit system. Light refreshments will be served.

"Use of library meeting space does not constitute endorsement of program/meeting or its content by the Prince George's County Memorial Library System."

About Prince George's ACT

Prince George's ACT advocates accessible transit and livable communities for Prince George's County. Our priorities include rail on the Wilson Bridge, the Inner Purple Line, increased and improved bus and rail service, and quality transit-oriented development. Founded in 2003, Prince George's ACT is a growing advocacy group now with more than 175 members. For more information, visit www.princegeorgesact.org.

Press contact

Karren Pope-Onwukwe, Prince George's ACT co-chair